INTERESTING EXPERIMENTS FOR KIDDIES

Lecture Course Will be Given During Xmas Vacation.

AN INNOVATION

Physics Course Will Explain Familiar Phenomena to Children.

A distinctly interesting innovation will be introduced at McGill during the Christmas holidays in the shape of a course of lectures in Physics for children between the ages of 10 and 15. These lectures which will be given by McGill professors will be made extremely interesting for the children by the experiments which will be introduced during their course, in order to explain the different phenomena in as graphic a manner as possible. The experiments will include the following: Liquid air, radium, pilot balloons, electromagnet, wireless telegraphy, colors from crystals, soap bubbles, miniature lightning, Tesla coil and sound made visible.

Though the idea of such a course is by no means a new one, it having originated with Abraham Cowley, who lived during the seventeenth century, we believe it is the first time that a university has taken the matter up seriously. Its success should be certain because the lectures will be couched in language which will be intelligible to any who may attend, while at the same time the explanations will be thorough from a scientific point of view. We trust that a goodly number of parents will see fit to thus increase the knowledge of their children during the vacation.

The programme of the lectures, all of which will be held in the Macdonald Physics Building, is as follows:

- 1—"Noise," by Professor A. S. Eve, C.B.E., F.R.S., D.Sc., on Dec. 23rd, at 4 p.m.
- 2—"Fire," by Professor A. N. Shaw, D.Sc., on Dec. 27th, at 4 p.m.
- 3—"Light," by Professor H. E. Reilly, M.Sc., on Dec. 29th, at 4 p.m.
- 4—"Sparks," by Professor L. V. King, F.R.S.C., D.Sc., on Dec. 31st, at 4 p.m.
- 5—"Radium," by Professor J. A. Gray, O.B.E., D.Sc., on January 3rd, at 4 p.m.

The lectures will be open to both boys and girls. Only 200 tickets per lecture are available. These will be sold en bloc only at a price of $1.25 for the course. The tickets are transferable.

TRIAL TO BE HELD AT UNION TUESDAY

Attendance Open To Everyone and Not Limited to Law Faculty.

The next Mock Trial, of which so much has been heard, will take place in the big hall of the Union, on Tuesday next, at 8 o'clock p.m. The case to be tried is the hypothetical automobile accident which gave so much concern to those who thought it was an actual happening when they read it in the "Daily" a short time ago. The plaintiff is Miss Calla Lecker, and the object of her proceedings is Mr. George Younger. His Lordship the Judge usually goes by the name of Mr. Gordon MacDougall, K.C.; he is a member of the well-known law firm of Lafleur, MacDougall, Macfarlane, and Barclay. The lawyers whose sworn object it is to commit Mr. Younger to the rigor of the law, are Biggar and Ryan. O'Halloran and Harold will concentrate all their faculties in an endeavor to bring to nought the efforts of the prosecution. In other words, counsel for plaintiff: Biggar and Ryan; counsel for defence: O'Halloran and Harold.

A welcome bit of news is that the trial is open to everybody and anybody who may wish to attend. Hitherto only those who were fortunate enough to belong to the Faculty of Law were admitted. However, it was felt that others beside the members of the aforesaid Faculty were taking interest in these trials, and so the veil of seclusion has now been lifted. This step should prove extremely popular; whether or no, remains to be seen on Tuesday. So, turn out in your hordes, all you who would see the machinery of the law in motion.

MEETING OF CHESS CLUB AT THE UNION

All Members Asked To Be Present on time.

WILL PLAY NATIONAL.

Announcements Concerning Representative Team Will Be Made.

An important meeting of the Chess Club will take place at the Union to-night. All members are urged to be present, because announcements will be made concerning the coming match and the probable team to represent McGill.

A meeting of the City Chess League took place on Saturday night at the National A.A.A., on Cherrier Street. The schedule of the games for the three classes — A, B and C — were made known and accepted by the various clubs. Everything points to a successful season for the City Chess League, and the addition of a team from McGill will add new interest to the games.

The first game of Class "C" will take place on Wednesday. McGill will meet the National team at their clubhouse on Cherrier Street on that night. Although the latter are experienced and older players, McGill will more than hold her own, for she will be represented by a strong aggregation of chess players. This is the first time McGill has been represented in the City Chess League, and the team will try as hard as possible to mark this venture by winning the championship.

After Christmas a tournament will be carried on by the club along the same lines as the one last year. In this way all members of the club will be given an opportunity to show their strength, and judging from the ability of some of the members the tournament will be a hard-fought one.

The team to represent McGill will be picked from the following men, so those whose names are below are especially requested to be present to-night:

- Dubgrer
- Enzer
- Rothschild
- Brault
- Jordan
- Johnston
- Hunter
- Crestohl
- Silverman
- Cartwright
- Drewry
- Cowan

The following is the schedule for the Class "C" games:

- 1920.
- Dec. 8—McGill vs. National.
- " 13—Westmount vs. McGill.
- " 23—National vs. Verdun.
- 1921.
- Jan. 20—McGill vs. Verdun.
- " 22—National vs. Westmount.
- Feb. 8—Verdun vs. McGill.
- " 14—National vs. McGill.
- " 17—Westmount vs. Verdun.
- Mar. 9—McGill vs. Westmount.
- " 9—Verdun vs. National.
- " 23—Westmount vs. National.

Those men who will be on the team are requested to see that the above dates affecting the McGill team are kept open.

MEDICAL UNDERGRAD. MEETING.

The meeting of the Medical Undergraduate Society, which was to have been held this morning, has been postponed until Thursday the ninth.

Y.M.C.A. OF COLOMBO DO FINE WORK

Boy Scout Troops Being Arranged for Young Boys.

SHOW KEEN INTEREST.

Student Hostels Proved the Most Successful Enterprises.

The following was received by the McGill Y.M.C.A. from Gordon Brown, who is in co-operation with Murray Brooks, in the McGill Y.M.C.A. at Colombo, Ceylon. The letter is self-explanatory:—

About a month ago I wrote you a somewhat general survey of the outstanding features of our work. Since then I have been thinking of one or two things that should be added.

In two respects particularly new opportunities are opening up before us. I refer to work among boys and among students. Some three or four months ago, after our army work had been closed down, we were informed that Morrison, who came to Colombo last December to take over the army work, has been transferred to the civilian staff of the Foreign Department of the British National Council, and was definitely appointed to Colombo for boys' work. As you know, a boys' secretary has long been on our list of wants, and this was good news. Morrison has had a lot of experience with boys in England, in addition to having had work in the training school at Midway, in London, and he has taken hold splendidly. To begin with, he is working along Boy Scout lines, and has seventy or eighty scouts and cubs at the branches at Bambalapitiya and Dehiwela. The boys are very keen and they take to him like everything. There is a splendid chance to build up in this way a Boys' Department, which is, of course, one of the most important things we can do. Boys are just as plentiful here as in any big city, and are just about the same kind. The ones Morrison has now are all school boys, English speaking, but there are any number who speak no English but only Tamil and Sinhalese, and we have in mind the establishment of a branch for these some day. Just when will depend on how rapidly the present work develops, and on the support we can get from local people for it, but chiefly, perhaps, on finding a man who can undertake the work in the vernacular. At present all there is being done in the vernacular is through the playground work instituted by Cammack when he was here (Continued on Page 4.)

OLD SCOUTS' CLUB TO HOLD SMOKER

Sir Arthur Currie, Professor Evans and Dr. Lamb To Be Present.

Something out of the ordinary in the way of a smoker will be given under the auspices of the McGill Old Scouts' Club next Thursday night in the Union. There will be the usual fellowship and good cheer which accompany all smokers, plus a few out of the ordinary attractions. The B, W. and F. will give a little exhibition of boxing and wrestling, a good orchestra has been secured, and some card tricks or juggling will be put on in addition.

Among the guests who have signified their intention of coming, are: Sir Arthur Currie, Prof. N. N. Evans and Dr. Lamb, and it is hoped that they will not remain unheard during the evening.

All ex-scouts in the University are invited to this affair whether they are members of the club or not. The club has now some forty members, and new members are always welcomed. The membership comprises men from every province of Canada and some even hail from England and the States.

It was at a smoker similar to that which will be held Thursday that the idea of forming the club originated. All who were present at that function will certainly wish to come out to this one, for the executive is trying to do even better than last year.

All out, then, you "Good Ol' Scouts."

STICKING TO IT

There is an old adage which says that anything worth beginning is worth finishing. The passing of the ages has not in any way destroyed the validity of these words. In fact this saying might be cited very aptly for the benefit of a large number among us who appear never to have heard its like before.

Members of executives, those entrusted by their fellows with the task of "running" our various undergraduate organizations, are constantly being balked at every turn by the type of man who will accede gladly to any request only to wriggle out of the duties entailed by it at the last moment. It may be the outcome of moral cowardice, or merely the result of rank personal carelessness. In either case it is inexcusable.

We have all met him—this man who listens wreathed with smiles to, any now project we have to propose, who appears to be literally bubbling over with enthusiasm and an honest desire to help. Then comes the crucial moment in our undertaking. Our erstwhile enthusiastic friend, on whose support we are perhaps forced to depend, is nowhere to be found. He feels slightly indisposed; any trivial excuse will serve the purpose.

He knows no shame, this man of false pretences. Should a member of some executive approach him on the following day with a request for assistance he will as gladly accept, and as unconcerned back out at the last minute.

With the less reprehensible this is merely the result of a mistaken desire to please. So many appear to think that merely by accepting a proposal they are smoothing away the worries of the harassed organizer. But this is far from being the case. They are merely acting as so many clogs in the wheels of undergraduate progress.

We venture to maintain that had the workers in the recent Whirlwind Campaign been as easily discouraged as some of these easy-conscience gentry whom we know so well, the final total would have been sad to look upon. Fortunately they were not.

Major and minor organizations of every conceivable variety are booming at McGill just now. And it is a healthy sign. But in so many cases their natural expansion and progress is being hampered for want of really reliable support. For a few, whose sense of responsibility is insufficiently developed, may spell disaster for the many who rely upon them.

The member of an executive who accepts office, and who neglects to discharge the duties entailed by it, is unworthy of the confidence of his fellow-students. The man who backs out without good reason is a "quitter."

CONGRATULATIONS

We feel sure that the news that our erstwhile rivals of Toronto have captured the amateur Rugby honors of the Dominion will be received with genuine pleasure by the members of the undergraduate body of this University. On the gridiron at Kingston they gave proof of their right to represent the Inter-collegiate Union in any encounter with the winners of an outside League.

Recent events in the United States have only served to emphasize still further the wide gulf separating amateur and professional sport. We flatter ourselves that inter-collegiate sport occupies the premier position in the first-named category. As this year's winners of the three-cornered struggle which has been waged so amicably for the past twenty years on the playing fields of Toronto, Queens and McGill, the Varsity fourteen receive our heartiest congratulations for their latest achievement.

MECHANICAL CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the Mechanical Club next Wednesday at 8.00 p.m., in Room 3 B, Engineering Building. Two papers are to be read on "Pulp and Paper": one by D. H. Macfarlane the other by J. O'Halloran, both Sci. '21. Light refreshments will be served after the meeting.

HAPPY TIME AT "DANSANT"

Excellent Music and Unique Decorations Mark Popular Social Event.

On Saturday afternoon in the Convocation Hall of the R.V.C., one of the most successful social functions of the season was given by the Partial Society in the form of a The Dansant. The proceeds of this entertainment were given to the excellent cause of the University Settlement.

Despite the awful weather conditions the hall was crowded with enthusiastic patrons who thoroughly enjoyed themselves every moment of the time.

The members of the Partial Society were dressed very prettily in red and white and in such an artistic manner which gave an unique touch to the popularity of the afternoon.

Around the sides of the hall tea was served in neatly arranged tables while just outside the two entrance booths were erected at which various articles of interest were sold in behalf of the Settlement.

The music was particularly well rendered which in no small way contributed to the jollity of the occasion.

The presence of many of our graduates amongst the large number of students was indeed a pleasure to many. That these Dansants are fully appreciated by them is especially evident since it affords a reunion to all.

Saturday's social event was under the patronage of Miss Huribatt who very kindly acted as chaperon.

The R.V.C.'s Dansants have always been of much interest to all at McGill and it is greatly hoped that more of these popular sources of enjoyment will be forthcoming before the end of the college year.

MUSICIANS AT SUNDAY SING

Seven-Piece Orchestra Provided Music in Excellent Fashion Last Night.

The Sunday "Sing" at Strathcona Hall last night was above the usual standard if one could look at it from the viewpoint of music. A seven-piece orchestra was in attendance, and any chance passer-by must have thought that a Conservatorium concert was taking place.

MacLaren very ably led this aggregation of musicians, while A. L. Crewson elicited sweet tones from his antique Stradivarius. Howard Nichols tickled the ivories so well that several dear young co-eds who were present were heard to remark that they "thought Cyril Scott had left the city."

G. Bourgain nearly strained himself on the trombone, and sweet woodwinds floated from somewhere behind the piano, so the player's name cannot be given. The attendance was not as large as usual, owing no doubt to the inclement weather, but those who were there sang quite as loudly as if a larger number had been present.

The evening opened (and continued) by the singing of numerous (unfurl hymns. This was interpolated by special selections from the orchestra—sometimes soft and dreamy, sometimes vivacious and quick.

About 9.30 coffee and cake were brought in, to the delight of those present, whose throats apparently needed relaxation from singing. After this three more hymns were sung, followed by "Hall Alma Mater" and "God Save the King." The choristers then dispersed to their homes; some gentlemen went as far as the R.V.C. first, of course, but that's immaterial.

Correspondence

The "Daily" is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY.

No communications will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Sir,—

It was with considerable concern that I perused the epistle of a fellow student appearing in the "Daily," with the dangers besetting the unwary student who dare trust himself on the Campus, after the exposure of the horrible conditions existing thereon by "Securitas" and "Pro Securitate."

My concern, however, was not for the safety of poor "Securitas" or his protagonist, but for the future of McGill. There must be something seriously wrong with our university when it will foster such selfish sentiments as those expressed with reference to the innocent amusement of the children.

I came to the university almost a Christian, and I believed that the one outstanding tenet of Christianity was: "Do unto others —" I was under the impression that most others who entered our portals held a similar view. I must have been mistaken. In spite of the Y.M.C.A. and Social Service Club, there are still men in the University who would deprive children of a park comparatively free from traffic, for the only reason that the said children are liable to bark some unwary student's shins. Certain it is that had the members of our football team the same scrupulous regard for their personal safety, their record would not have been as glorious as it was.

Closing the campus to the children would be a fine way to make our university quite popular in the minds of many people and particularly in the minds of the parents of the children affected. The chances are that some of the parents cannot afford a nurse-maid to look after their progeny. The knowledge that the children were enjoying themselves on the campus would not entail the worry that their playing on the streets would.

A regrettable accident occurred in the city recently when one child was killed and another seriously injured when they collided with an automobile while sliding on one of the city streets. A splendid way to increase the chances of similar accidents would be to drive the children away from the campus onto the streets—for children will play, whether on the streets or in the nursery. It is only the few precocious ones who do not and they need an institution of learning with the idea that all play should be abolished. Hence these letters demanding the exclusion of the children from university grounds.

Looking back on my childhood days I cannot truthfully say that while disporting myself in sliding I did not do so at the risk of life and limb to others. I must have been a awful little urchin. Horrors! How I shudder to think of my desperate childhood days!

As for the games suggested by Pro Securitate, I can only suggest that he indulge in a few of them himself. I do not think he would find them too difficult to understand.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
 Yours for the children,
 DESPERATE DENT, '23.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Sir,—

I have seen a large amount of correspondence upon the subject of children in the McGill Grounds. Part of this correspondence is doubtless jejune, but in view of the numerous accidents which take place in connection with "street sliding" (the final decision as to excluding children from the grounds should be given very careful consideration. In the "Gazette" we learn of one child being killed and another injured. It is true that certain students are doubtless inconvenienced (more or less) by the youngsters, but it is surely only fair that McGill should help the kiddies enjoy life by allowing them to play on the Campus.

In order to exclude the objectionable element, it should be possible to arrange a pass system by which pass-holders might slide to the exclusion of undesirables. This would limit both number and quality.

Trusting that all the children may not be turned out,
 I remain,
 Sincerely yours,
 INTERESTED.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Sir,—

I see that still more paper, ink, and time is being wasted on less than trifles who persist in making the days hideous by their laughter and shouts while careering down the precipitous slopes about the College.

I trust that our aged (?) friend, "Securitas," has not been maimed or otherwise injured by violent collision with a rocketing sleigh. It is indeed sad to think that so many noble youths around College should have their lives placed in jeopardy while

COMMERCIAL SOCIETY MEET ON TUESDAY

Union Will Be Place of Second Meeting.

PROMINENT SPEAKER.

Mr. Robert Neilson, Well-Known Business Man Will Address Society.

The Commercial Society is meeting to-morrow (Tuesday) night at 8.15 p.m., at the Union. The meeting will be similar in form to the one preceding it. So all those who had a good time and learned something of profit at the last meeting turn out and bring another Commerce man with you who was not so fortunate. Now that the pressure is relieved among the business men who were working hard for Old McGill in the Campaign there will be no lack of fine speakers to choose from.

To-morrow night we are highly favoured in that respect. Mr. Robert Neilson, the speaker of the evening, is well known in business circles in Montreal, and it will be a real treat to hear him. He has been for some years secretary of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, and will without doubt have a message of inspiration for us. It is by making the acquaintance of representative men like Mr. Cook and Mr. Neilson and others of like calibre that a man is able to form some idea of the business world before he enters it.

Here's a secret. Mr. Cook, in speaking to some of the members of the Society, emphasised the importance of the Commerce course, and the benefits to be derived from the Commercial Society. He said that with a College training such as that back of a man there is no reason why he should not rise to positions of importance in a short time, even if the start seems abnormally low for a College graduate. Training counts, he said, and the man who is best trained to think for himself is the one who wins out. These expressions from an outside source, and one so reliable as Mr. Cook, is indeed encouraging, and make one feel like making further exertions to acquire a broad education. The value of the Commercial Society seemed especially to be uppermost in Mr. Cook's mind. But this is all by the way.

The refreshments, however, will not be by the way. They are very much a part of the evening's programme. They are, so to speak, a species of dividend on the capital invested in the Commercial Society, and the above said dividend is declared to be the best procurable for the sum invested. At the present prices of the "One And" and "Cafe," it is a marvel of ingenuity and well worthy of the brains of a man of Commerce to supply eats at such a moderately low figure.

Music? Sure! Lots of it! A whole piano full, eked out by the odd tambourine or bones, not to mention the merry mandolin, the violin and the old bass drum.

So come out and show your loyalty, Commerce men, and make this night the biggest ever. Make it an even one hundred and fifty members at this meeting, and bust all previous records in the annals of the School of Commerce. To-morrow night then, at 8.15—the Union.

ANNUAL OLD SCOUTS' SMOKER.

The Old Scouts' Smoker will be held on Thursday, Dec. 9th, in the Union, at 8.15 p.m. All Old Scouts in the University are cordially invited.

pursuing that elusive and abstract profession of education.

It is, however, an ill wind that blows nobody any good, and doubtless our medical friends will have great pleasure in caring for any student who is unfortunate enough to be slain or injured on his way to the noble halls of learning.

This question of excluding children brings up a very fine point, however. If the Governors exclude all children from the grounds McGill will be in the unique position of having no freshman year. While the sophs will be in the sad fix of not having a banquet at the chit—mean Freshies' expense. If, in view of this overwhelming calamity, children are admitted to again run up against a brick wall. Are the children to be admitted alone or under convoy of nurse or governess? Away with the nurses; they make the sophs feel homesick for their mothers' apron strings. The only solution possible, then, is to provide adequate accommodation for nurses outside the grounds and permit children to enter upon presentation of their grounds tickets—slighting to be restricted to certain portions of the Campus and roads, there being well defined neutral zones provided for pedestrians.

Trusting that these little suggestions may prove helpful, Mr. Editor, I am,

Yours exceedingly truly,

SLEDGE-DODGER.

EXECUTIVE OF RUGGER CLUB HELD MEETING

Will Arrange Dinner For All Members of Club.

FINE TIME EXPECTED.

Will Include Orchestra—Committee To Meet in Union At 5.15.

At a meeting held on Friday evening, the executive of the Rugger Club appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements. The enthusiastic will remember that the guests are to include the members of the winning team of the season. The Maritime team, who were the league winners, has been made up as follows:

McIntosh, J.
 Lawrence
 McClean
 Tritts
 Humphrey
 Clarke
 Dawson
 Spriggs
 Lanty
 Ross
 McIntosh, A.
 Bearsto
 Kelly
 McKinnon

These men have been chosen as the Maritime Representative Team, both for their good play and for their regular attendance.

Westerners and Imperials will be out in force to welcome their victorious opponents, and, of course, any Maritimer who was not fortunate enough to be one of the chosen, will be a thrice welcome. An excellent evening can be promised to all. The food will be the best that the Union can offer, and the company—well, you know all about that. What an opportunity it will be for that yarn about the time you played for England vs. Scotland (or vice versa) or for B.C. vs. the All Blacks ("Of course you know, By Jove! I don't like to wear my Rugger Blue because of Badgo Rules, don'tcheknow?").

It was suggested at the executive meeting by the Maritime representatives that their men would not object to contributing a small sum towards the provision of an orchestra to discourage sweet music during the evening. The subscriptions will be fifty cents for the members of the Maritime team, and three-twenty-five for all others. If there is a sufficiently large turnout, it will be possible to reduce the latter to three dollars.

The dinner will be an informal one, and it has been decided that there will be no speeches. Although this decision has been made, there may be some important announcements made concerning next season's doings.

A subscription list will be posted in the Union, and names of those wishing to attend (including the Maritimers) can be written thereon, or given to members of the dinner committee, who will also collect subscriptions. All names must be in by Thursday evening at five o'clock sharp.

There will be a meeting of the dinner committee this evening (Monday), in the Union Cafeteria, at 5.15 o'clock. The following, who constitute it, are specially requested to be present: A. L. Patterson, J. F. McKintosh, F. C. E. Roome, and Lochard. Will any one of these who is unable to turn up at this time, please A. L. Patterson, Uptown 1765, between one and two, to-day.

CLASS BASKETBALL.

Arts '24 failed to qualify for the class basketball league finals, when they lost by default to Second year Medicine on Saturday. This was to have been a semi-final game, and leaves Second year Medicine alone with Commerce '23 in the finals. These two teams will play off for the championship at an early date.

'VARSITY WINS CHAMPIONSHIP FROM ARGOS

U. of T. Make 16 Points Against Opponents 3.

DOMINION TITLE.

McGill Pleased at Rivals Victory For the First Time in Many Years.

Everyone at McGill will be greatly pleased to hear of the success of their late rivals, Varsity, against the Argos on Saturday afternoon. Although the McGill Football Team consistently refused to take part in any post-season games, all their good wishes went to Varsity when it became known that they would play the Argonauts for the Dominion Championship title. Despite very unfavorable weather conditions the bleachers were filled long before the game was scheduled to begin. The grandstand was filled to capacity and many were forced to occupy standing room. The band, supplemented by a yell artist with a megaphone kept the Rooters happy while the occupants of the grandstand were entertained by Victrola music. A large amplifier was used, which enabled the music to be heard all over the field.

The gridiron was in very bad condition but generous applications of sawdust improved things for the players considerably. The beginning of the game was almost simultaneous with the beginning of a heavy down-pour of rain. At 2:10 two of the Argos' team had not appeared on the field and other members of the team grew restive. However as the Varsity team was late in arriving from Hart House, both men appeared in time to be in when the game started at 2:30.

McKenzie kicked off to Cochrane. Munro kicked short to McKenzie who fumbled, but Breen recovered. An exchange of kicks brought the play into midfield. Snyder went around the end for yards but on a second try fumbled the ball and Bretnell secured. Munro kicked to Breen. Argos offense gave Varsity ten yards. On the last down Varsity went around the end for yards with Breen on the outside, Bretnell bringing him down. Munro slipped as he was attempting a catch. Snyder secured and went over for a touch but was called back to Varsity's forty. Pugh replaced Sullivan. Snyder's bounding ball went to Batstone who made a quick pass to Munro. Pugh hurried the scrimmage for a gain of five. Munro kicked to McKenzie and the big fellow ran it back to Argos' forty. Varsity gave no yards to Munro and the play was brought back. Fear replaced Britnell. Munro kicked across field into touch at Varsity's five. Gilhooley's hard tackle made Westman drop the ball, and the Argos secured. Garrett replaced Gilhooley. Batstone kicked a low bounding ball. McKenzie fell as he was about to pick up the ball. Breen secured and was downed for a rouge. Argos 1, Varsity 0.

Duncan brought down Batstone in his tracks as he took Snyder's punt. O'Connor went through for seven yards at centre. Munro kicked to Breen and Cochrane downed him. McKenzie hit the line without result. Snyder kicked to Munro. Duncan passed to Batstone who returned to Breen. Gilhooley replaced Garrett. Carew gained 8 yards. A fake play enabled Snyder to get through. When tackled he passed to Duncan and the flying wing completed a 20-yard gain just as the whistle blew for the first quarter. Argos 1, Varsity 0.

Varsity started the second quarter with an end run, gaining five yards. Snyder discovered a hole near the scrimmage and hurried through for a touchdown, which was converted by McKenzie, at a bad angle. Argos, 1; Varsity 6.

Snyder returned the kick-off to O'Connor. Munro's kick was blocked, and after a mix-up, Cochrane went through for a 20-yard gain for Argos. On the next down, a loose ball gave Cochrane another chance to secure the ball. McKenzie and Breen ran Munro's kick back the whole distance. Snyder kicked to Munro and Duncan was promptly grassed. Britnell replaced Fear. Two plunges at the line resulted in a 5-yard gain for Argos. Munro kicked across the field to McKenzie, who galloped back half the distance. Duncan got Batstone on Snyder's kick, and Mackenzie came down in his tracks. Garrett replaced O'Connor. Argos got yards in three downs. Two attempts met with no success, and Munro kicked to McKenzie. Gilhooley bringing him down. Argos made a 5-yard gain. Munro took Snyder's kick back 15 yards. Cochrane found a hole and made 7 yards. Munro kicked to Breen. Munro ran back Snyder's punt and then kicked to Breen for a big gain, but Breen ran it back for a loss. Earle hit the line hard for yards. Carew gained five more. Earle tried again and made a small gain.

Argos broke through on Snyder and gained possession at their own thirty. Batstone, Munro and Garrett went around the end, gaining 19 yards. Munro kicked to Breen who hit the sawdust as the whistle blew for half-time.

The score at half-time was—Varsity, 6; Argos, 1. McKenzie returned the kick-off to Munro. Grey went through for yards and Pugh went eight yards with Varsity at his heels. McKenzie secured a kick and was downed for a rouge. Argos, 2; Varsity, 6.

McKenzie went through the centre making 30 yards. Snyder went around the end for 5 yards, and Murray added a couple more. The third down did not give Varsity her ten, and Argos got the ball. Rolph stopped Batstone's end run. The ball was passed to Breen and McKenzie but no gain resulted. Batstone got Snyder's punt but was again stopped by Rolph and Argos lost. Cochrane made a few yards. Breen tried to run back Garrett's kick, but lost the ball, Argos securing on Varsity's 30.

A loose ball went to Varsity. Young replaced Greey. Pugh blocked Breen's kick and Young recovered. No gain resulted from two bucks and Cochrane tried an inside kick. O'Connor replaced Garrett. McKenzie made a slight gain and as Snyder added a couple McKenzie completed yards. Greey replaced Young. Polson got a penalty. Snyder made 10 yards and Carew made 2 more, which was completed by Snyder. McKenzie made five. Munro tried to make a punt on the fly but muffed. Snyder dribbled the ball over for a touch which McKenzie failed to convert. Argos, 2; Varsity 11.

Snyder started the fourth quarter by making a slight gain through centre, and Taylor completed yards. McKenzie made 7 yards. Young replaced Greey. Snyder went through for 20 yards. Breen made a couple and Snyder completed yards. Stirrett made six. A second attempt was smothered. McKenzie was blocked by his own scrimmage, but went around the end for a touch, which was not converted. Varsity, 16; Argos, 2.

Breen ran the kick-off back 15 yards. Stirrett and McKenzie accounted for yards. Snyder made 19 more, but Varsity lost 15 for an off-side and were again sent back 15 on the next down. O'Connor failed to secure a punt on the fly, and Varsity secured. Snyder kicked right to Munro behind the line, but Duncan ran it out.

Two downs gained nothing and Munro kicked to Mackenzie, who got it at the Argos' 10-yard line. Munro made the longest run in the game, bringing the ball into mid-field. Munro was unable to kick on the third down and lost the ball. Argos got the ball on the third down. Earle replaced Wallace. Young made 7 and Cochrane completed. NEW GRAND.

The management of the New Grand Theatre last week proudly endorsed "The Branded Woman" as the most pretentious Norma Talmadge production ever produced, and if crowds are any indication, the public has certainly liked the production; as soon as the doors opened Sunday week last crowds started and they have come in such large numbers that the S.R.O. sign has been in evidence daily.

The New Grand management has received so many requests to show "The Branded Woman" another week, that they have decided to hold the picture over to accommodate those who have not been able to get seats and also so that those who want to see the picture for the second time will have the opportunity. "The Branded Woman" is a screen version of Oliver D. Bailey's play "Branded," the story tells of Ruth Delmat's mother. Dot, runs a gambling house in partnership with "Velvet" Craft. The girl is taken from boarding school and forced to consort with an old rake. Judge Whitlock, a politician, takes Ruth away, makes her his ward and later she weds Douglas Courtney, an English diplomat. Ruth conceals the facts of her parentage from her husband. She goes to Franco with him. On her mother's death Craft comes to Paris and blackmails Ruth. Craft finally tells Courtney about Ruth's notorious mother. Courtney, believing his wife to be false, denounces her. Ruth returns to America. Later Courtney follows, finds her in Whitlock's home and they are reconciled.

Other features will make up the show. The New Grand Concert Orchestra, under the direction of David S. Levin, will render the musical part of the show.

Imposing Funeral of the Late Dr. Robert A. Bowie, Med. '91—Graduates Act as Pall-Bearers—Lt.-Col. Edwards Honored By French Government For War Services—Five Former McGill Men Are Successful in Recent B.C. Elections—Stork Visits Several Homes.

The funeral of Dr. Robert A. Bowie, Med. '91, accidentally killed on Nov. 26 in a fall down the elevator shaft of St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, Ont., was held there on November 29, and was one of the largest in years. Among the pall-bearers were three fellow-graduates of the University, Dr. T. F. Robertson, Med. '91; Dr. E. B. Moles, Med. '96, and Dr. F. B. Carron, Med. '96.

The medical profession, the military, the fraternal orders and the public at large, from the most influential to the most humble, united in paying a last tribute of respect to Col. Bowie, whose death followed a brilliant career as a surgeon with the C.E.F. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Hutchison, Med. '84, chief medical officer of the Grand Trunk Railway System, Montreal, represented that company at the funeral. Dr. Bowie was district medical officer of the railroad. A wreath from the McGill Graduates' Society, Montreal, was among the floral tributes, the profusion of which bore tribute to the place which the late Dr. Bowie occupied in the affections of his numerous friends.

Dr. F. Cyril Greenwood, Med. '18, of St. Catharines, Ont., has passed the examinations of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

The French Republic has conferred upon Lieut.-Col. C. MacP. Edwards, D.S.O., past student of Ottawa, the Médaille d'Honneur avec glaives "en vermeil" in recognition of his services while commanding the 38th Canadian Battalion in France.

Marcel Marcus, Law '12, has resigned as assistant city solicitor of Calgary, Alberta, and is entering legal practice in Winnipeg.

A. B. Coulson, who died suddenly in Montreal, on November 25, was the father of Dr. R. B. Coulson, Med. '20, of the Montreal General Hospital.

A. G. Haultain, Sci. '10, has returned to Ottawa after spending several months in topographical work for the Geographical Survey in the vicinity of Vancouver, B.C.

Mrs. Katharine H. Dutcher, who died at Vernon, B.C., recently, was the mother of Prof. Howard K. Dutcher, Sci. '04, of the University of Toronto.

G. B. Boving, Agr. '16, who has been acting as instructor to returned men in the Department of Agronomy, University of British Columbia, has been appointed extension assistant in the same department. R. A. Derlek, Agr. '20, has been appointed field assistant in the Department of Agronomy, University of British Columbia.

Major A. S. Buttenshaw, D.S.O., Sci. '10, is now Inspector of Ordnance Machinery for Military Districts Nos. 6 and 7, with headquarters at Halifax, N.S.

The marriage took place on December 1, at the home of the bride's parents, 241 Addington Ave., Westmount, of Rev. Cyril Harris Adair, past student of West Brome, Que., and Myrtle, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Driver.

At Kansas City, on November 17, was solemnized the marriage of Jules R. Timmins, past student, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Timmins, Montreal, and Miss Edna Nelson.

On November 26 a daughter was born at 402 West Hill Avenue, Montreal, to Kenneth de Sola Joseph, Sci. '13, and Mrs. Joseph. On November 28, at the Montreal Maternity Hospital, a daughter was born to A. S. Dawes, Sci. '10, and Mrs. Dawes, 41 The Drummond Apartments. On November 30, a daughter was born at 416 Roslyn Avenue, Westmount, to E. S. Winslow, Sci. '08, and Mrs. Winslow.

Dr. John Phelan MacDonald, Med. '06, who returned to Canada broken in health after long service in France with the R.A.M.C., died at Edmonton, Alberta, on November 27. The late Dr. MacDonald was one of Edmonton's best known physicians and was a past student of the Central Alberta Medical Association. Born at Perth, Ont., he was educated there, at Kingston, Ont., and at McGill. Following graduation in Medicine, he took post-graduate courses at Edinburgh, Glasgow and Harvard. While overseas he received special mention for his services in connection with camp sanitation. His wife, four sons and one daughter survive.

In the British Columbia provincial elections held last week, graduates of McGill figured quite prominently. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Med. '09, was elected by acclamation in Revelstoke, the only member of the Legislature to be so returned. F. W. Anderson, Sci. '06, who is Chief Government Whip, was re-elected for Kamloops. Hon. Dr. John D. Maclean, Med. '05, Minister of Education, was re-elected in Greenwood. Dr. W. O. Rose, Med. '08, headed the poll as Conservative candidate in Nelson. Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Med. At Srinagar, Kashmir, India, on October 15, a daughter, Jane, was born to John R. Cox, Sci. '10, and Mrs. Cox. On December 2, a daughter was born at 81 Crescent Street, Montreal, to Dr. Norman Viner, Arts '01, Med. '06.

Captain E. B. Moles, Med. '96, has been appointed medical officer of the Brockville Rifles, Canadian Militia. He served overseas.

The Tale Of a Fish

(Special to the "McGill Daily.")

All frequenters of the Museum, and in fact any one who has ever visited the building, could not have failed to notice that magnificent specimen of fish, of the genus Artedion, called Artie for short by all his admirers. To the casual gazer, Artie appears to be dead or stuffed variety of the finny tribe, a back number as it were. He even fooled his loving guardian, the caretaker. But Artie is a deep one, and he determined not to thus spend the remainder of his existence. When captured he took a very long and deep breath, of such greatness that up to the present he was able to exist very comfortably, though to all appearances dead. But not Artie. He was only biding his time. And at last it came, just in time, as it happened, because the supply of oxygen was beginning to get scarce.

Sunday of course is an off day for all the fossils, curios and animals in the museum. So that Artie decided that he must plan his escape for a Sunday. But he needed the help of the elements in his plan. And last Sunday he got it. It was an ideal day for any deed, nefarious or otherwise, which had to be done unnoticed. The rain came down in torrents. No one had the courage to venture forth on the icy streets. This rain especially was a great boon to Artie. For is not water his natural element, and does it not furnish him with an avenue of escape?

When he had made sure that the caretaker was not within hearing distance, Artie made the first step in his attempt towards regaining his freedom. He made a nicely calculated attack on the glass which encased him, and judging his distance to a nicely easily broke through the barrier and landed conveniently on the window sill. After a little bit of effort he was able to release the catch and raise the window. The draught thus created slammed the door of his room, and brought the janitor on the run to see what was happening. "This will never do," thought Artie, whereupon he made a gallant rally and reached the roof by a kind of backward spring. From this point it was a comparatively easy task to slide down comfortably to the eaves trough, and thence by means of the gutter pipe to the ground. So far so good. But he was not to get away as easily as this. For the caretaker, who you will remember we left coming on the double to discover the cause of all the rumpus, arrived just in time to see Artie making a dive through the pipe in his effort to descend from the roof. So that when Artie was considering what he should do next, the caretaker suddenly emerged from the doorway armed with a broomstick and a landing net.

But Artie was game to the core. Having got thus far he was not the fish to back down. So with a frisk of his tail as a sort of parting wish, he leaped into one of the swiftly running streams which are found in the runs by the library. Having swum up-stream as far as McTavish street he found the rest of the way plain sailing. All he had to do was to steer a middle course down the street as far as Sherbrooke. Here he found sufficient water to float a houseboat, and so turned east, his natural instinct warning him that the crowded district of the city was the surest place in which to hide. Meanwhile the caretaker was in full pursuit. But what could he, poor fellow, do against so fast a boy as Artie. He was soon left hopelessly behind. Whereupon he set himself to think. It took him a long time, with the help of several of the professors to devise a sure plan for Artie's recapture. But at last light dawned upon them. Certainly, they reasoned, Artie must take to the sewers. And according they called up the Mayor who immediately ordered out all the corporation laborers with nets to watch the outlets to all the city's drains.

And they were right. Artie had been too trusting in the good nature of the city population. Certain rude boys began to make uncomplimentary remarks about his scales and beautiful colorings which Artie quite naturally resented. When he attempted to revenge these insults by splashing the boys with his tail, they started to bombard him with missiles of a very moist and clammy nature, which stung considerably. While taking counsel as how best to avoid these attacks he noticed a grating which seemingly opened into the sidewalk. Here was a sure refuge. And in he swam. Poor Artie. He soon discovered his mistake. But it was too late. He had to go with the current which led him on and on. He began to regret his escape. In the Museum he had been assured of a comfortable home at least. Suddenly he felt himself lifted out of the water, and heard someone exclaim "There he is, the rascal."

The rest you can imagine for yourself. Artie can be seen any day in the Museum, where he occupies an honored position. It is understood that some day he will consent to give this story in his own words. When that day arrives, he can be assured of an interested audience of students, reporters and all outsiders who can crowd themselves in. In the meanwhile we must content ourselves with this meagre outline of a fish's folly in trying to escape from the clutches of the Redpath Museum.

and now carried on by a local man, P. G. de Silva, trained under him. This is good as far as it goes, but is far short of the ideal, and, of course, is nothing like as far reaching as the Working Boys' Branch or Vernacular Boys' Branch which we have in mind. There is a great field in this direction.

The second opportunity, that among students, is perhaps more immediate. Government plans are well in hand for opening a Ceylon University—or, at least, an Arts Faculty—very soon, possibly even this year, and certainly next; and though the beginnings will be small, experience in India shows that such Universities are soon crowded. We should have a student hostel with a good student secretary as warden as soon as the college doors are open. Even now there are numbers of students in the Law and Medical Colleges, among whom work could be done by the right man, and with the new Arts men coming a man would have all he could do. Incidentally, the authorities would be glad of the addition of a good man to the staff for part time teaching. Student hostels in India have proved one of the most fruitful fields in which Christian work may be done, and I know of no more satisfactory accomplishment than Worman of Madras, Charlie Paterson of Calcutta, and other men in like situations can look back upon. I sincerely hope that this door opening up before us may not find us unready to enter and take possession. We need the right man for this, and it means a new man probably, for more places are asking for men than there are men to fill them.

I wish I could bring all these things more vividly before you—show you the boys in school and on the streets, the students coming for their four years' work—impressible, proud, often too proud to ask the help they need in more ways than one, eager for friendship. We can't go back on them, nor on the other work longer established here. May we not look for your continued support in prayer and in money to enable us to carry on the old and open up the new.

With all good wishes for your work at McGill, and warmest greetings to all old friends, believe me, Very sincerely yours, (Signed) W. GORDON BROWN.
